Community Yard Sale Returns for another Season of Deals and Treasures!

Kansas City, MO—The City Market will kick off its fourth season hosting the City Market Community Yard Sale on Sunday on May 3, 2009 from 9:00 a.m. 3:00 p.m. The City Market welcomes downtown residents and the metro community to take this opportunity to clear out their closets, basements and storage units and sell gently used items at the Market. Take advantage of all the bargains and find a treasure or two as it's sure to be a great day full of great deals!

“The annual yard sale kick-off is just the precursor to what has become a successful weekly event at the City Market and has become a staple of our continually growing Sunday market. ” said Deb Churchill, Property Manager for the City Market. The City Market’s Community Yard Sale is a great way for the community to find environmentally responsible ways to reuse items which might otherwise find their way to local landfills. In today’s economic landscape, residents are looking for creative ways to stretch their hard earned dollars. The Community Yard Sale provides an excellent opportunity for individuals to sell gently used items they don’t otherwise use and create a new revenue source. Shoppers will find competitive prices on used household items, clothing and apparel for adults and children, children’s toys, collectables and much more. The weekly yard sale is another great reason to shop the City Market’s Sunday Market, which has all the elements of the Saturday Market such as fresh, locally grown produce, baked goods, prepared foods and crafts but at a more leisurely pace.

While at the Community Yard Sale, shoppers will also find over thirty City Market Merchants, offering a variety of specialty food items, flowers, gifts, restaurant options and much more. The Sunday Farmers’ Market features a wide selection of produce, food items, artisans, crafters, tasty concessionaires and the Art of the Machine Car Series. The Community Yard Sale will continue every Sunday throughout the season.
