City Market Flower Festival Brings Color to Kansas City!

Kansas City, MO— The City Market is in full bloom with the most colorful display of bedding plants in Kansas City on Saturday, May 10, 2008. Shoppers can choose from a stunning selection of bedding plants, hanging baskets, perennials, vegetable plants and herbs, shrubs, house plants, ground cover and more! Find unique landscape decorations as well as gardening advice from dozens of greenhouses.

Other activities will include recipe sampling sponsored by the University of Missouri Extension Office, art and craft activities, live music by the Rain Dogs, Beaks n' Wing bird adoptions and much more. Shatto Milk Company will be on site selling their delicious, mouth watering dairy products and will also have baby calves on display, seeking a friendly pat on the head. Farmers' Market hours are 6 am – 4 pm and festival hours are 8 am – 2 pm.

While at the Flower Festival, shoppers can find that perfect gift for Mother's Day with over thirty City Market Merchants who offer a variety of specialty food items, gifts, restaurant options and much more. For information, contact the City Market Office at 816-842-1271 or go to www.thecitymarket.org. The City Market Flower Festival is sponsored in part by the Neighborhood Tourism Development Fund, Renewal by Andersen, the University of Missouri Extension Office and the City Market.
